Michaela Conlin

Actress currently playing forensic specialist Angela Montenegro on the Fox crime/comedy television show Bones

Hometown: Allentown, Pennsylvania

She's a closet rehabilitator "If I hadn't become an actress, I'd probably be restoring and selling old houses. It's addicting and extremely gratifying."

She's understated "My home was built in 1938 and has a definite midcentury modern feel to it. I like to mix pieces that I've picked up at flea markets or antiques stores with newer items. I try to make it feel as understated and as warm as possible."

Her house has secrets "I was having some repairs done, and a wall had to be opened up. I found check stubs and notes from 1938 that belonged to the original owner of the house! I framed them, and they're currently hanging in the living room."

Vintage kitchen find "I have a stove from the '40s in my kitchen. It's wonderful for cooking, and I love the way it looks."

She has a green thumb "I collect plants and am usually at the nursery on my days off. I love to be outside planting something in the dirt or making potted succulent arrangements. It calms me down."

Must haves "I think every woman should have a sense of humor and a great handbag."

Crazy for Cavett "I love to watch interviews from The Dick Cavett Show. His guests were amazing—Bette Davis, Jimi Hendrix, Alfred Hitchcock. The interview with Katharine Hepburn is one of my favorites."

I am Trad "I love a strong handshake, and I believe good manners are imperative." 🍷
